Rev. Chandler To Offer Farewell Sermon

Rev. John R. Chandler will deliver his last sermon at Trinity Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning. His sermon topic at both the 9:15 and 11:15 worship hours will be "The Good Fight of Faith."

The pulpit will be filled by candidates for the pastorate until such time as a new pastor is selected by the congregation.

The congregation tendered Rev. and Mrs. Chandler a farewell party Wednesday evening, and they were presented with a purse as the congregation wished them good luck in whatever path they will be directed as they continue their work in the Presbyterian Church.

Art Carswell to Take it Easy

If Art Carswell, who has just completed 23 years with the San Diego County Road Department, does not have all the fish he wants the rest of his life, it won't be the fault of his former co-workers. About 50 of his fellow county road employees presented Art with enough fishing gear to last him the rest of his life in connection with a farewell ceremony held last Wednesday. Included were a rod and reel, tackle and tackle box, and a plaque with the names of the 50 contributors of the equipment. The presentation was made by J. H. Mack, county road commissioner.

Art, who lives at 3222 Vista Ave., said that he would loaf and travel but that fishing would be an important part of either one he does.

Piggly-Wiggly to Have Grand Opening Celebration

A grand opening spread over a two week period was announced by Clarence Milbrodt, manager of the Piggly-Wiggly store in Lemon Grove.

Milbrodt said that door prizes for the entire family, plus give-away merchandise, demonstrations, and free samples will be attendant the two week celebration. In addition, he said, a special grand prize, which will be dear to some woman's heart, will be given during the opening.

While he did not announce what the prize would be, he said it would be one of major proportions and one that any woman would like to have.

Special prizes resulting from special buys made available by many manufacturers supplying the Piggly-Wiggly chain would be part of the attraction for grocery shoppers during the event.

O. J. Schoen, vice president of Piggly-Wiggly, said that merchandising of the Piggly-Wiggly organization has been developed with an eye toward reducing living costs of all shoppers.

"It is my opinion that a healthy and strong community can only result by keeping the cost of living in hand," he said. "Believe me, we are exerting more and more effort toward this end."

Schoen said that the store was being completely revamped under Milbrodt's direction and that a bigger new meat market, delicatessen and bakery department would catch the consumer's eye as they entered the store. Stocks of merchandise will be rearranged on new modern golds and this should make for easier shopping, he said.

Milbrodt pointed out that the front had been completely revamped in California redwood and a new sign, extending well beyond the confines of the building with a planter beneath it, would offer a more attractive vista to shoppers.

Milbrodt said that varicolored walls would offer a more attractive background for shoppers, that pastel shades would be used to add to its attractiveness.

Color-spot cornices with fluorescent lights behind colored discs would run the length of the store. By choosing lights associated with the merchandise the shopper's wishes may be directed directly to that merchandise. For example, the produce department is lighted in green and yellow.

Convenient parking in the front, side and rear of the building has been expanded and Milbrodt pointed out that shops in the immediate vicinity make complete shopping a reality for the first time in that sector. He also pointed out that a new department which offers toiletries and hardware has been added to the store making the store itself a more complete operation.

D. D. Williams Jr., president, said that Piggly-Wiggly introduced self-service into the grocery field in 1918. This revolutionary departure resulted in lower prices and easier shopping. Since then, he said, many innovations have been developed by Piggly-Wiggly which further reduced operation costs. These savings are passed on to consumers, he said.

Williams also said that the firm has been San Diego's Home Town.

Community Planning Is for Community Betterment Says Dr. Miller

"Community planning will not make nor prevent any one from doing anything," said Dr. Willis Miller, director of County Planning, Friday at the Lemon Grove Men's Club.

Dr. Miller and his chief aid, Bart Dunn, were guests of the organization and Judge Luther Hussey, chairman of the Lemon Grove Advisory Committee which was formed several months ago of components of various organizations in Lemon Grove.

"If you want recreation, roads and public buildings, you should plan them so they will serve the most people," Dr. Miller said. "Any plan," he said, "is better than no plan at all." Plans for the Lemon Grove community are already under consideration by his department and these will require two man years of work, he pointed out.

He also asked for an expression from Lemon Grove residents in regard to cantilever type signs, the base of which rests on a set-back line but the sign itself extends into the set-back area although it is high in the air.

Full consideration of access roads and under passes when the freeway is built will be given the Lemon Grove Planning Advisory Committee, Dr. Miller said.

The Men's Club meets each Friday at Michael's.

Research Engineer To Address Kiwanis Club

A major building improvement will get under way on Broadway almost immediately, it was announced this week by the Mt. Helix Associates.

This firm plans to begin construction of a 4,000 sq. ft. building between Carr's Hardware and Broadway. The building will have an 85 foot front and will house two well-known area mercantile firms.

The structure, which will be built by a local contractor with local help and material, will house Marsi's, a women's wear shop, and the Highlanders, a men's wear establishment. Each of the shops will have a mezzanine.

The Highlander firm has alarger. Skelly said that the shop, when open, will have a complete line of young men's and men's wear which will include suits, accessories, shoes and luggage. No boys' wear will be carried. Famous name suits, such as Timely, Fashion Bilt, and Clark Wilshire, will be handled. This merchant-

Jack Lyons, noted research engineer, head of the San Diego County Residential Research Committee, will be guest speaker at the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club, Wednesday, March 10.

Lyons will produce a picture of what Lemon Grove will look like in the near future and the distant future. The Kiwanis Club is inviting members of the business fraternity to the informative meeting.

M. H. Brownies To Have Revel

Brownie Scouts of Monterey Heights are busily preparing for their annual Brownie Revel, which will take place Tuesday evening, March 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Monterey Heights School auditorium. They decided upon an arts and crafts show to display the work their troops have been doing thus far this year. Several troops plan to present dramatic skits to illustrate their achievements.

Donations from the sale of tickets, which will include refreshments, will go to the various troop treasuries to be used for materials and philanthropic projects.

Episcopal Church to Have Pancake Luncheon

The Shrove Tuesday pancake luncheon will be held by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, La Mesa. The ladies under chairmanship of Mrs. Carson F. McPherson, will serve from eleven o'clock until two, in the parish house, Tuesday.

Few readers appreciate the tremendous "pulling power" of the daily newspaper. Recently the Toledo (Ohio) Blade was compelled to shut down its switch-board and send 40 people home exhausted when 10,000 people phoned to express opinions on an address by Senator Joseph McCarthy.

More than 400 application blanks were handed out at the Review office for employment of 125 Lemon Grove persons for Big Ace Markets following the announcement in last week's paper.

These application blanks, still available at the Review office, must be filled in on both sides and may either be returned to the parent firm whose address is at the top of the form, or may be turned into the Review office and they will then be channeled to the Big Ace.

Key personnel will be interviewed soon after the first of the month but bag and box boys will be chosen by sight about March 15.

Big Ace opening is scheduled for the 23rd of March and a series of events attendant the opening is being planned. Among these are conducted to 75 members of Lemon Grove organizations.

CITIZEN'S ADVISORY COMMITTEE FORMING GROUP NAMED

An organizing group for the Lemon Grove Citizen's Advisory Committee to the Elementary School District was named this week.

The first meeting will be held Wednesday at 7:30 in the school administrative offices on Acacia Street. The group will dissolve as soon as the committee is formed but service on it does not include or prohibit participation on the advisory committee.

Those named are: Robert Von Weller, Bert Cosby, R. H. Lange, Max Goodwin, Edward Kinyon, Rita Mallow, Russell Foster, Ted Magnusson and Mrs. C. W. Brown.

The bitters, that solitary marsh bird, relies on camouflage for safety. It stretches its neck to simulate a reed and will remain motionless until stepped upon. Then it fights desperately with claws and bill.

Two New Firms to Occupy New Building in Lemon Grove

A major building improvement will get under way on Broadway almost immediately, it was announced this week by the Mt. Helix Associates.

This firm plans to begin construction of a 4,000 sq. ft. building between Carr's Hardware and Broadway. The building will have an 85 foot front and will house two well-known area mercantile firms.

The structure, which will be built by a local contractor with local help and material, will house Marsi's, a women's wear shop, and the Highlanders, a men's wear establishment. Each of the shops will have a mezzanine.

The Highlander firm has alarger. Skelly said that the shop, when open, will have a complete line of young men's and men's wear which will include suits, accessories, shoes and luggage. No boys' wear will be carried. Famous name suits, such as Timely, Fashion Bilt, and Clark Wilshire, will be handled. This merchant-

The owners of Marsi's said that a Lemon Grove woman, the name of whom is to be announced later, would be named manager.

They also said that juniors, misses and half sizes would be featured and that everything required by fashion conscious women would be available at the Lemon Grove shop. Budget accounts will be invited, they said.

The building should be ready for occupancy in about 60 days, according to the Mt. Helix Associates.

Fire Prevention Week to Help Lemon Grove Clean-up

By CALLMAN JOHN DAIL

Clean-up is catching on in Lemon Grove!

The enthusiasm of business people and residents of Lemon Grove for Fire Prevention Week is suggesting to many that a thorough clean-up is of special value as far as preventing fire losses.

The housewife and parent are in control of one of the chief danger spots, the home, and chances are greater that ever that one or more of their families will lose their lives as a result of a fire in the home. According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, 80% of the annual fire deaths originate in the home.

The public schools and St. John's Parochial School have appointed school fire chiefs, each with a department of junior officers and firemen to promote fire safety at the school and to assist in bringing the information to the home. Clarence Allen, principal of Vista La Mesa Elementary School stated, "Vista La Mesa, recognizing the importance of this program, was the first to complete the school fire department. Vista La Mesa has a fire chief and school firemen who are assuming leadership in teaching and pointing out dangerous fire hazards at school and at home." Darrel Adams is the Vista La Mesa school fire chief. Lee Birch, fire chief at Junior High School, and Pat Twomey, St. John's, suggest that the P-T-A and Parent Guild could assist in getting parents and home owners out to the demonstrations to be held during Fire Prevention Week.

The Dixon Line

By FRIEND DIXON

This is Dixon speaking. For sometime past Mason (The Mason Line) has gotten a big play in the Review. If you know your history, you may remember that my name still is connected with that "menagerie lion" which designated a certain geographical division and in all fairness I should be given equal space—Mason should not have all the play.

Among other things, I'll bet lover boy Jimmie Roosevelt wishes he had never learned to write.

Things we don't like department.

The jet propelled Sunday night radio commentator, whose breathless broadcast of hatches, matches and dispatches gets us down. His effort to push somebody's potent pills is a waste of time. After listening to him you do not need the pills.

The commentator and his prediction of things to come who says he's 99 and 9/10 per cent right. The percentage is right but the results are wrong. He's 99 and 9/10 per cent irritating.

How come we never voted these guys into political office. They know so much, we don't need a president.

And by the way, what happens to all those libel suits these commentators file against each other?

We would suggest you pay your income tax with a smile—but you can't get by with it. Uncle Sam demands cold cash.

We prefer radio to television. We just listen and don't have to look at 'em.

Our Business Men's Club is getting nicely under way in spite of the fact that the secretary, Dr. McKinney, the veterinarian, spends most of his time in the dog house.

We understand that Andy Anderson has been taken to the cleaners. He leased his business property to a former La Jolla dry cleaning firm.

We snatched this one (copyright has expired).

THE DIMMER VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

No matter how much research you do in dictionaries and encyclopedias, none of them will give the definition of "public servant" to mean "dictator."

While you and I know that the term, "public servant" means a person who serves the public and is on the public payroll, we must join together in admitting our frustration in the discovery that public servants have completely dissociated the word servant from service.

This is particularly true in civil service where a pencil twiddling has become a highly refined art. My lament today is not restricted to any one branch of public service. You can lay your dough and pick your choice from federal level to county level. Rather than to have any reader feel that I cannot be specific when the occasion demands, I will direct your attention to the State of California Department of Motor Vehicles in downtown San Diego as a horrible example.

While I have access to numerous verbal and written instances of "poor" to "no" service, let me tell you of one which I am certain has hundreds of counterparts among our audience.

At the State of California Motor Vehicle Dept., a clerk was disintegrated from a personal conversation long enough to direct a license seeker, looking for the change of ownership window. The window was fed by a long line in which the license-seeker stood for 45 minutes. When I arrived at the window the clerk offered that he had been in the wrong line.

He should have been in another line six windows away. He stood in that one for one-half hour after which his business was completed. During these two long waits the five windows separating the two lines were manned by unoccupied clerks. Maybe it was just as well that these clerks had nothing to do since it was one of these wretches who misdirected the license-seeker in the first place. A floor officer, whose salary is paid with our tax dollars, to aid and guide us, was not in view during this affair.

An incident to point up this complaint is a matter which I also know about personally. A remittance for a license, amounting to about 75% of the initial fee, was promptly slapped upon the poor sucker.

Now if the department used the same alacrity in serving the people who drive autos and pay

Low Down Payment

Much has been said for and about low or no down payments. Most of this is, plainly speaking, so much bunk. Herewith is an offer of small down payment which is bonafide. If you have a good steady job and pay your bills properly I will sell you ANY car on my lot which would total under $195 for $25 down. In other words, bring $25 and you may drive a car home which meets above conditions.

"We don't have a lot of shopping to do because our family is small but we buy all our groceries and meats at Davis Market," said Amelia Southward, 5131 College Ave.

Her husband, Merlin, who is in the maintenance department at State College, is responsible for getting her started at Davis Food Center, she said.

"It's wonderful to have everything in one spot such as it is at Davis," she said. "It takes the work out of shopping. Most of my neighbors shop here too."

Davis Market is open every day and evening and has a recently enlarged parking area with entrances and exits on three of Lemon Grove's main thoroughfares.

Recently installed new check stands are motorized to make checking out quick and convenient. Box boys transport purchases from the stands to the patrons' autos.—ADV.

You Are Not Eligible To Vote Just Because
You Got a Sample
Ballot Says Registrar

Residents of the Rolando area were receiving sample ballots this week concerning an election for annexation to (1) San Diego, (2) La Mesa.

Many persons who reside in Lemon Grove proper were perplexed to receive the sample ballots with instructions on where to vote. Some did not take the trouble to read the instructions that accompanied the sample ballots which stated that "You will be entitled to vote at the election if you reside within the boundaries of the territory known as 'to be annexed'."

Lex Lord, registrar of voters, said that many Lemon Grove residents are receiving these ballots because they are in the precincts which touch into the area under consideration for annexation. In Lemon Grove precinct 1 and 1D and in Rolando 6, for example, about half of the area is up for annexation while the other half is not.

If there is any question as to whether you are entitled to vote or whether the area in which you reside is to be annexed, it has been suggested by the registrar that you call his office, giving your name and location, and the question will be settled.

Lemon Grove School P-TA Honors Peg Darroch

Mrs. John Mallow, P-TA executive board member, extends to Peg Darroch, Lemon Grove Elementary School eighth grade teacher, the honorary life membership at a ceremony Thursday night at San Miguel School.

Mrs. Darroch is the only teacher in recent history to receive such an honor, although several of the school's principals have been so honored.

The citation accompanying the award, highlights Mrs. Darroch's "seven years' work in the interest of community youth."

Jr. High School Youngsters Attend Dance

The Lemon Leap, the second student council dance of the school year, was held Friday evening at the Women's Club and was attended by approximately two hundred 7th and 8th graders from the Lemon Grove Junior High.

Excitement prevailed during the affair as the finals of the school yo yo tournament were held and the names of the new school officers were announced during the intermission.

Linda Vestal, the only girl to gain the finals, surprised Raymond Kygar, Terry Quinlan, Christ Avery, Jeff Willis, and Don Turner, the other finalists, by walking away with the school yo yo crown.

Amid the flashing bulbs of photographers the new officers were announced by past president Mary Conlee. Up to the time of the dance the winners had been kept secret by Commissioner of Elections Jerry Waddle. The new president is Sue McDonald; the vice president, Kenny Smith; the secretary, Carolyn Randall; and the treasurer, Linda Walters.

As is tradition at the junior high, Harry Butler handled the music at the dance for the students. Keith Dolan is the faculty sponsor of the student council and these activities.

Grove Youths in Model Legislature

Ken Stratton, 1647 Bakersfield and Bill Blair, 2860 Buena Vista attended the 1954 Youth and Government Model Legislature in Sacramento recently. As a senator and senator-in-training the two attempted passage of a bill to increase educational opportunities for junior and senior high schools—a bill which their Lemon Grove Hi-Y developed.

A third Helix High student, Glen Crosbie, of the La Mesa Hi-Y also attended. The young legislators followed the same procedures as used by adult state legislators in seeking passage of their bill. The Lemon Grove Kiwanis and the Lemon Grove Lions are local sponsors of the Hi-Y project.

They are making more donuts these days at Mrs. Wright's Donut Shop at Broadway and Massachusetts. In fact, they're making 72 pounds of them to each batch.

A new mixer, capable of mixing 72 pounds of batter, and which costs $1,500, was installed last week. The Hobart mixer was acquired to meet the growing demand for Mrs. Wright's products. Formerly the Wrights were able to mix only 30 pounds at one time.

Dr. Hugh Williams, formerly a Disciple missionary to Paraguay and now teaching in an interdenominational school in Puerto Rico, will speak to the youth and also at the 9 and 11 o'clock church services next Sunday. Dr. Royal J. Dye will also be with the conference. Dr. Dye has just returned from Belgian Congo where he has visited the missionary work he helped establish 50 years ago.

Local Sports Club Invites Members

The Lemon Grove Rod and Gun Club is again inviting men and women of the community to join. Regular monthly meeting, March 2 will be held at the Recreation Hall of Leewood Trailer Court at 8:00 p.m.

Jim Woody, president, is following the policy of holding the business portion of the meetings to a minimum, and stressing the entertainment and companionship of the group. A record attendance last month proves the need for such an organization here.

The members agreed that hunting and fishing should be family activities. They voted to admit junior members under the sponsorship of an adult. A child training program is being included as part of the club activities.

A surf fishing party is being planned this month as the first club field trip. Any prospective member is invited to attend both the meeting and the fishing trip.

The 40th (Grizzly) Infantry Division, California National Guard still serving in Korea, and its counterpart here, the 140th Division of the California National Guard stationed at Ft. Rosecrans have maintained a constant flow of money and supplies to the Kenneth Kaiser Memorial High School, Kapyong, Korea.

This co-educational school was built in 1952, dedicated in November of that year at a cost of $17,135 plus hundreds of man hours of labor by both Korean workers and 40th soldiers during off duty hours. The school gained its name from Kenneth Kaiser, Jr., who was the first man killed in action in the Korean conflict from the 40th division. He was only eighteen at the time of his death.

Now the 140th is conducting a campaign for much needed supplies: serviceable and clean clothing for these children, especially shoes, school supplies such as paper, pencils and ink, suitable English school books, athletic equipment of all kinds and non-perishable foods, particularly canned food and powdered milk. The date of the current drive is March 10.

The bride's parents are the former operators of the Gift Shop, now called the Angel Shop. A reception immediately after the ceremony will be held at Friendship Hall. About 100 guests will be present.

The couple will leave for Las Vegas for a honeymoon and will return by way of Borrego Desert and will reside in La Mesa.

The groom is in the Navy stationed at San Diego. Miss Blake is a graduate of Grossmont High and attended Mercy School of Nursing.

Harold Zabrack to Play

Recital Sunday at

Woman's Club

The public is invited to hear Harold Zabrack, prominent young San Diego pianist-teacher in a concert recital on Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in the Lemon Grove Woman's Club.

Mr. Zabrack, protegee of the noted musicians Leo Miller of St. Louis and Rudolph Ganz of Chicago, holds a Master of Music Degree from Chicago Musical College.

Though a comparative newcomer to San Diego, Zabrack was presented to a large and enthusiastic audience last fall at the La Jolla Art Center and will be one of the artists appearing in the San Diego Symphony Series this spring. This cultural event Sunday is open to the community without charge.

Mid-Week Lenten Services

To Be Held at

Lutheran Church

Lemon Grove Lutheran Church will begin a series of Mid-Week Lenten Services starting Thursday, and continuing throughout the Lenten Season.

Pastor W. LeRoy Elster will bring the messages at each service, his overall theme being, "At the Cross." Special music will be provided by the choir, as well as by individuals.

Anyone who cares to attend is most cordially welcome. The "Books of Baruch" were not authored by the great American advisor to presidents, Bernard Manner Baruch. Actually, the title was written by Jeremiah's secretary and is included in the Greek Bible between the books of Jeremiah and Lamentations.

Man is the only animal that blushes. Or needs to. Mark Twain

Music Parents May Meet In New Music Room

When the Lemon Grove Music Parents Club meets Monday, March 1, at 7:30, it is expected that the meeting will take place in the new music room in the auditorium-cafeteria building. We hope that all members will attend.

Entertainment will be provided by the string quartet, consisting of: Barbara Thomas, 1st violin, Ferol Martin, 2nd violin, Melvin Stover, viola, and Jimmy Madsen, cello. Also the double trio will sing. The members of this group are Sondra Perkins, Sandra Perry, Carol Tyson, Sharon Cassell, Velma Buckingham, and Gloria Castellanos. They will be accompanied by Anna Harlan, pianist. Hostesses during the social hour will be Mrs. C. L. Waterman and Mrs. D. F. Ellis.

The daily bath, a sanitation necessity with Americans, began as a religious rite with Egyptians and Greeks.

Square Dances To Be Held

Levis and Laces Beginners Class in square dancing will meet on Monday nights in San Miguel School.

Anyone interested in joining the group please call Clarence Montgomery at HI 4-7832 or Audree Burch at HO 6-0768.

Bulen to Run Again

Edwin S. "Ed" Bulen this week announced his intention to file for reelection in the 77th Assembly District, which includes La Mesa, Spring Valley, Lemon Grove, and National City, plus practically all of the Northern part of San Diego County. He stated that he would cross file in an attempt to win the Democratic nomination also.

"I have managed," Bulen said, "to avoid any alliances with pressure groups, and if re-elected will be free to represent the people of the 77th Assembly District, and not any special cliques."

Bulen emphasized the fact that due to his firm stand on economy

"I have always opposed, and will continue to oppose, needless expenditure of State money," Bulen continued. "Being a business man, however, and realizing the importance of the education of our youth, I am willing to vote for any necessary funds to accomplish this purpose. The need for water in San Diego County is still, and will continue to be, one of our most pressing problems and we should work, not only to conserve our local rainfall, but to lay the groundwork for the importation of northern water."

Red Cross Opens

By CHARLES GURLEY
Public Information Chairman

The Lemon Grove Red Cross district is fairly well organized for its annual membership and fund drive due to the cooperation of its churches and service clubs, however, Mrs. Lee Jordan, chairman of the drive would like a large number of volunteer workers to join in this worthwhile community effort.

"Any who can give an hour or two," said Mrs. Jordan, "please call HO 6-0434 and your services will be welcomed." The districts will be covered Tuesday and Wednesday, March 2nd and 3rd. Residents are requested for the workers, to help Lemon Grove exceed its really small quota of only $2,980.

Heart Fund Aid Given By Lemon Grove Lions

The Lemon Grove Lions Club offered a helping hand to the sagging Lemon Grove Heart Fund last week as the campaign came down the final stretch.

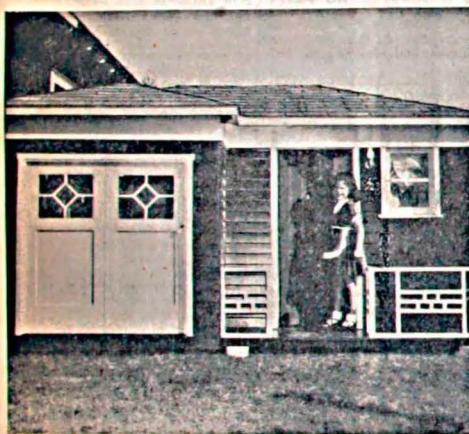

Henry Goldy, chairman of the drive, had all of Lemon Grove covered and the plastic hearts distributed. The only work remaining to be done was soliciting the business district for contributions and the Lions Club took over that project.

Building (Doll House) is Booming

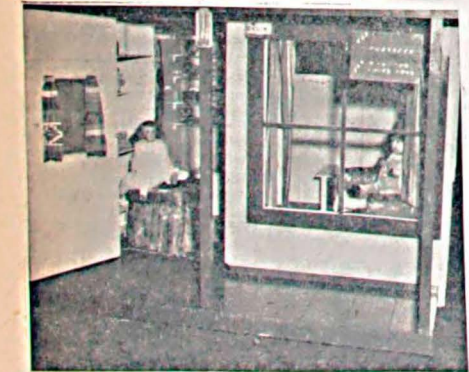

Spring time is house building time for most people in Lemon Grove but doting relatives also had their eyes on the small fry and at least two miniature houses resulted.

This house was made for Susan Brouillette, 3285 Olive St. The house was made by Todd Chaffie at the Chaffie Machine Works in San Diego and was given to Susan for her fifth birthday.

The house is complete with electric wiring, it has an electric stove, doorbell and lights. It matches the main house and has many of the niceties of the parents' home. It has a record player, a dinette set, a refrigerator and dish washer, has rubber tile on the floors and the garage opens into a dining room. Seven persons can comfortably occupy it, Susan's parents said. The house is 12 feet by 14 feet by 7 feet.

Most local people will remember Mrs. Chaffie when she operated the Petite Shop in Lemon Grove until about one year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mack built and furnished the above house for their granddaughter Georgene Grace Litzler of Holtville, California, who was four years old earlier this year and gave it to her as a surprise birthday present.

The house is air-conditioned and it is electrically heated. Grandma Mack furnished it with furniture they made and hand painted. The china dishes, which are 20 years old, belonged to Georgene's mother who won first place in a china collection contest at a hobby show in Woodrow Wilson School a number of years ago. One of the dolls, which occupies the house, is 38 years old and has been in the family for four generations. Another doll, a china one, is 53 years old and belongs to Grandma Mack. The house was built in Lemon Grove at the Mack's place of business, 7958 Imperial Ave. The house is 6 feet by 8 feet by 5 feet.

Have You Wondered Why Pictures of Jesus Christ Always Appear the Same?

Perhaps I do not attend church as often as I should, but I take notice when I do, and I am more conversant with the Bible than most people would deem possible. There is one thing, however, that I never have learned from attending church nor in reading the Bible, and that is why the likeness of Jesus Christ always appears the same.

It is noticeable in "The Last Supper," "The Sermon on the Mount," "Christ Before Pilate," and many others. This always has seemed strange to me because there is no place in history that states there were painters or sculptors of note in that era.

With this question always in my subconscious mind I recently became absorbed in an old volume of "Heart Throbs," classic poetry and prose, that contained a report by the governor of Judea, sent to Caesar Augustus and the Roman Senate, which accurately described the Savior when he was in the flesh and walked the earth. So, at last, I have the answer. The founders of Christianity KNEW what Christ looked like.

The following epistle is said to have been taken by Napoleon from the records of Rome when he deprived that city of so many valuable manuscripts. It was written at the time and on the spot where Jesus commenced his ministry by Publius Lentulus, governor of Judea, to the Senate of Rome, Caesar, emperor. It was the custom in those days for the governor to write home any event that transpired while he held office.

"Conscript Fathers: In these our days appeared a man named Jesus Christ, who is yet living among us, and of the Gentiles is accepted as a prophet of great truth; but his own disciples call him the son of God. He hath raised the dead and cured all manner of diseases. He is a man of stature somewhat tall and comely, with a ruddy countenance, such as the beholder may both love and fear. His hair is the color of a filbert when fully ripe, plain to his ears, whence downward it is more of orient color, curling and waving on his shoulders; in the middle of his head is a seam of long hair, after the manner of the Nazarenes. His forehead is plain and delicate, the face without spot or wrinkle, beautiful with a comely red; his nose and mouth are exactly

Two Local Doctors Named to L. M. Hospital Staff

Two Lemon Grove doctors were elected officers of the La Mesa Community Hospital recently.

David Wilhite, M.D., was named secretary and Simon C. Brumbaugh, M.D., was named program chairman.

Named president and chief of staff was G. R. Myers, M.D., of El Cajon. The results of the election were announced by John H. Gorby, administrator of the La Mesa Hospital.

Mrs. William Beasley, president, urges all parents of Helix High school students to attend the meeting and to remain for the social hour immediately following.

In law, the birth of a child is not recognized until proof of "living issue" is established. "Living issue" requires that the child be completely separated from its mother and that "evidence of independent life" be established although the child may have lived but for an instant. On the other hand an unborn child is regarded by law as an individual person—and may inherit property. On this paradox, highly controversial legal actions have hung in the balance.

OSCAR LEVANT, L. A. concert pianist—"Happiness is something you don't experience. It's something you just remember."

For all intent and purposes Lemon Grove was established as a community in 1893 when the first post office became activated.

Civil Defense Notes

Charles Gurley HO 6-3745

The regular monthly meeting of the San Diego County Civil Defense Zone Wardens was held at their Gillespie Field headquarters in Santee last Wednesday evening and was addressed by Lt. Col. Albert Trumbull and Lester Wadsworth, the two top kicks in this area.

The main subject under discussion was a question of shelters or evacuation and it appears that the question of public shelters is for reason of prohibitive costs discarded and now we will have to depend on radar for as much advance warning as possible and as orderly evacuation as we are able to achieve.

"We are now at that stage of Civil Defense training" said Dr. Frank Gigliotti, Zone Warden for Lemon Grove area, "where we must see that everyone possible gets First Aid instructions, some training on how to prevent fires in the home, some informa-

"I also wish to announce that 'Skip' Hedrick has taken the very important job of handling supplies which takes a great load off my mind."

Next week, we expect to tell you something about the subject of the California Fire Safety Plan.

Hygiene and Corrections and the California Youth Authority need junior and senior psychologists, the State Personnel Board has announced.

The beginning position pays $325 to $376 a month and requires six months of field work in clinical psychology and a master's degree in the field.

Seniors receive a monthly salary of $481 to $584. To qualify, applicants must have two years' experience and a master's degree.

Official application forms are available at California Department of Employment on Columbia st. in San Diego.

A pastor, taking a census in his parish, always asked the children the same questions: "What is your name? How old are you? Do you say your prayers? What will happen to you if you do not say your prayers?"

One mother rehearsed her child so he would make a good showing. The pastor duly came to call. But before he could ask his questions, he got the answers: "My name is Jerry Jones . . . 5

Sen. Kraft Seeks Re-Election

Senator Fred H. Kraft will be a candidate for re-election to the California State Senate from this county.

He has introduced and sponsored laws regulating the sales of dangerous drugs and hypnotics. These measures received nation-wide acclaim and are being copied by other states, he pointed out.

Kraft is both chairman and vice chairman of major Senate committees. He heads the standing committee on Public Health and Safety and is vice chairman of the Committee on Business and Professions. He also serves on Revenue and Taxation, Financial Institutions, and Institutions committees. Two interim projects which he directed, the studies on Unemployment Insurance and Narcotics and Hypnotics, received nation-wide attention and praise. At present his interim assignments include the committees on Highways, Streets and Bridges; Divorce; Licensing of Business and Professions; Salt Water Conversion; and the Joint Committee on Marine Affairs and Bay Area Development.

"During the past twelve years I have served in the Legislature," Kraft said, "our State and county have undergone a period of unprecedented growth in population which has complicated old problems and created new ones. My experience in serving the people in this time has given me a broad knowledge of the needs of the entire State as well as our own county. I have constantly consulted with the people of San Diego County, not just of one group or section, but of all interests and occupations, to learn their problems and their wishes. In my legislative decisions I have been guided by the will of the majority; I have never been subservient to interest groups, factions, or cliques."

"Some of you may recall," Kraft continued, "that four years ago a major operation kept me from campaigning actively. Today I have recovered completely and am in better health than I have enjoyed for years."

Leaders of San Diego County working for Senator Kraft's re-election commented on the great value of his seniority to this county. "We all know," one declared, "that in the Senate, committee chairmanships and assignments as well as legislative standings are based chiefly on the length of a legislator's service in that house. When a county is fortunate, as we are, in having a man like Senator Kraft with an outstanding record of Senate service, the voters of that district are represented by him on the most important committees and their wishes and views are given added significance. Senator Kraft is now twelfth among Republican leaders, and this seniority combined with his reputation for vigorous action and energetic, outstanding representation makes him one of the legislative leaders of California. This fact is of the greatest importance to our county. We have in Senator Kraft a legislator of experience, known, respected, and admired by his colleagues for his hard-hitting, forthright, and unswerving devotion to his county and his State. His position of seniority and his standing as one of the top Republican leaders of the upper house are assets of the greatest significance to San Diego County."

Grocer since 1922. To further localize the firm's outlets, local personnel and local managers are chosen.

He pointed out that his firm was continuously seeking ways of lowering living costs.

The grand re-opening, according to Milbrodt, will get under way next week and will continue for two weeks.

"We are going to have merchandise available for our friends and customers below any prices they have seen in the immediate past," said Milbrodt.

the wages as they are quick to assess penalties, there would be few complaints. The fact that the postmark was dated less than 12 hours after this arbitrary deadline should give substance to the thought that the taxpayer mailed it in time and should not be penalized.

If any of you poor down-trodden taxpayers want to join with me to do something we may be able to turn the tide on this menacing octopus which spells out humiliation and abuse with almost every contact.

As to what this newspaper proposes you can rest assured that it will be something definitive. With the political season at hand more and more aspirants come traipsing across our threshold asking for support. None of them, and I mean absolutely none, will be given the courtesy of our attention, much less our support, unless they can produce proof that they will aid in correcting this situation where you can sow your tax dollars and reap abuse.

FIRE PREVENTION

terey Heights, and Guy Hunter, Golden Avenue, say that clean-up at home can help all mothers and housewives by providing more storage space. "Clean out the garage and each closet, throw away all those old boxes, broken furniture, old clothes and newspapers and you'll be amazed at the extra storage space you have provided for yourself," was the advice given by these young fire chiefs.

Among the events scheduled for Fire Prevention Week are: Public demonstration of fire fighting and first aid, March 15 at 7:30 p.m. at School Lane between Golden Avenue and Central; Scientific demonstration of the causes and results of fire by Merton R. Smith, chief of fire prevention at North Island Naval Air Station.

The public demonstration of fire fighting on School Lane will be a thrilling event lasting 1½ hours and staged by Gene Owens of the General Pacific Fire Equipment Co. and the Lemon Grove Fire Department.

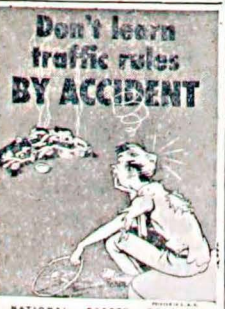

The demonstration by Merton R. Smith of the causes and results of fire is a program that has never before been shown to the general public and everyone is urged to attend. It will be held March 15 and time and place will be announced in a later edition of the Review.

The Fireman's Relief Association will present to the school fire chief, registering the best attendance (per school capita) at these events, a beautiful trophy in recognition of his service. Firemen's Relief Association vice-president Fred Dixon said that all of the junior fire chiefs are doing a wonderful job and all of them will receive an award during that week.

This Cake's A Honey

Looking for a suggestion to spark lagging appetites on sultry summer days? When the temperature soars high, most people prefer something light and cool—chilled soups, cool beverages, crisp salads. Ideal to fill out these light meals is a good taste-tempting dessert such as a downy-light cake served with a scoop of ice cream. This sweet two-tone is always a favorite, especially if the cake is a chocolate one made with super-fine cake flour and, as in this recipe, delicately flavored with

YOU BE THE JUDGE

WITNESSES & PASSENGERS

You may be in a car involved in an accident, or witness such a crash. You want to do the right thing when such an accident takes place. So let us suggest that you have a plan of action for accidents.

A—Check the condition of the injured and do what you can to get medical care for them if they need it.

B—Next, identify the drivers. Make sure that you have their names, addresses and license numbers. Identify yourself to the people in the cars and to officers. Then talk to witnesses. Get their names, addresses and statements of the details of the accident. Write this down, on the spot. Make written notes of the main circumstances of the accident. Measure skid marks. Note the positions of the cars, etc.

C—Help the injured. You may be called as a witness. But it may take a long time before you are asked to tell what you saw and heard. Testify from careful notes made on the scene, and you will not get confused on the witness stand.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.
